

Programme Introduction:

BE's exclusive Charterhouse Young Learners Summer Course is highly suited to students considering studying at Britain's top boarding schools in the future as an initial trial experience. Helping them to think about suitable school placement and to have a clearer vision of what they want to achieve.

The programme curriculum includes the cultivation of British culture, etiquette, art perception - all whilst focusing on key subjects such as science, geography, history and literature. In 2024 the Charterhouse Young Learners course is welcoming students from all over the globe to create a thrilling international mix. This will result in strong integration between students of different backgrounds.

School Description:

Charterhouse School

Founded in 1611, Charterhouse is one of the most prestigious schools in the world, alongside the likes of Eton and Harrow. It is located in Godalming, a quaint town in Surrey, about one hour from central London.

The 250-acre campus is one of the largest and most famous in the UK, boasting stunning centuries-old buildings like the iconic chapel. As a result, Charterhouse has been described as one of the "most beautiful schools in the UK". It is breathtaking to visit.

Former Prime Minister Robert Banks Jenkinson, calculus pioneer Isaac Barrow and Economist Maurice Herbert Dobb were all students at Charterhouse. The school also has traditionally strong results, with 20-30% of graduates progressing to Oxbridge each year.

Programme Highlights:

Experience learning at Charterhouse School

As one of the top schools in the UK, Charterhouse is known for its academic rigour and tradition. The course places focus on learning in a boarding school environment, students thrive in a social and academic atmosphere that fosters leadership, teamwork and creativity.

Elite Private School Teaching Team

A star-studded teaching team, with a well-known actor David Dray running drama, is led by course director, Chris Rose, currently Deputy Head at the nearby prestigious Aldro Prep school. Chris doesn't just sit back and direct from afar, but rather gets very involved with the daily teaching of the students. He has unrivalled experience in getting students into Charterhouse from Aldro as well as regularly sending students to other top boarding schools as well. Many of the teachers have been involved with the course for years and provide excellent learning opportunities for students, who are in turn able to gain a deep understanding of the academic environment at a boarding school. This detailed attention students receive greatly helps them for future academic challenges at a higher level.

Introduction to the course

Along with promoting learning in a fun, exciting and interactive way inside and outside the classroom. The boarding experience will foster life skills, independence and help develop good manners. The core modules taught are Science, Geography, History and Literature. Students will be placed in class sizes of maximum 10 students and rotate between these subjects daily. Post lunch, when not on excursions, students will have Co-curricular lessons in Drama, Art, Music, and Sports.

Authentic Private School Boarding Experience

Students live and study with others from many different countries and cultures, sharing new perspectives and experiences. This cultural diversity fosters open-mindedness, cross-cultural understanding and important social skills, as well as providing students with a solid foundation for entering a British boarding school in the future.

Language Requirement

All students will need a good foundation in English (equivalent to B1 English level). This will require pre-departure testing which we will organize for all students.

Schedule:

Programme Outline:

■ Language and Literature

In our lessons, we will explore the tales from Rudyard Kipling's 'Just So' stories and use our visit to Wisley Gardens and Marwell Zoo as the basis for our writing.

■ Science

These lessons will involve the study of plants, trees and flowers around the Charterhouse site. Often this will include outdoor activities, as well as practical work in the lab.

■ Geography

We will take the children on a virtual whistle-stop tour of the three countries that make up Great Britain, their cities and physical features. They will investigate landforms such as rivers, waterfalls, caves and arches, and learn how they were formed.

■ History

In this subject we will study 1066 and the Norman Conquest, together with developing an understanding of British castles. In addition, we will look at the history of Charterhouse School, from its roots in London to its present-day location in Godalming.

■ Excursions

Tower of London, Natural History Museum, Science Museum, Royal Wisely Gardens, Arundel Castle, and Marwell Zoo.
